Fees

Our course fees cover the course and learning materials. For course books that have already been made available (i.e. in a previous course) no course fee reductions are made. Lower rates are only applicable for course bookings of a min. of 5 consecutive weeks. They do not apply if participants decide to prolong their course.

Cancellation Conditions

In case you wish to cancel your course, please let us know promptly in writing. Those, who cancel seven working days before the course begins will be refunded fully minus the € 150.00 deposit. Those, who cancel later or do not start their course at all, will not be refunded any money already paid. We recommend to take out travel insurance. Should your visa application be rejected please provide written proof thereof. We will refund any payments less the € 150.00 deposit that will be withheld for administrative charges.

Insurance

No insurance is included in our course fees. Please contact your health insurance company to check if your insurance is valid abroad too. If not, please take out appropriate insurance.

Liability and Jurisdiction

„Deutsch in Österreich“ does not accept any liability in the case of illness, accident, theft, etc. and does not undertake any responsibility, whatsoever, for under aged persons. „Deutsch in Österreich“ reserves the right to make amendments to the program. For classes with low numbers of students it is either planned to reduce the intensity of the course or to offer an alternative course date in consultation with the course participants involved. The place of jurisdiction is Klagenfurt.

Leisure Time Program

During the summer courses we offer various leisure options including sports and cultural activities as well as excursions. Organization of leisure time activities (Monday to Saturday) is included in the course fee. However, bus tickets, entrance fees as well as additional costs have to be paid separately. Participation in our leisure time activities, many of which are free of charge, is voluntary.

Determine your Language Level from the Following:

- A1 I neither speak nor understand the language.
- A2 I am able to speak slowly using short, simple sentences and understand the basic information if somebody speaks slowly and accentuated.
- B1 I am able to communicate sufficiently, though sometimes incorrectly, in everyday situations and understand the majority of what is being said.
- B2 In general, I am able to communicate without major problems and understand almost everything.
- C1 I am able to express myself spontaneously and fluently and am able to participate in discussions of complex topics.
- C2 I am able to understand, analyze and interpret all types of written and verbal language without problems and am also able to recognize and express nuances of meaning.
